SPECIAL ORDERS, No. 1.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, January 2, 1883.

1. By direction of the Secretary of War the action of the commanding general Department of the East, designating the penitentiary at Albany, New York, as the place for the execution of so much of the sentence of a general court-martial (General Court-Martial Orders, No. 134, December 26, 1882, Department of the East) in the case of Joseph Thomas, lately private in Battery H, 2d Artillery, as relates to confinement, is approved.

2. By direction of the Secretary of War Private William M. Frybarger, Light Battery F, 2d Artillery, now with his command, will be discharged the service of the United States on receipt of this order by the commanding officer of his station. This soldier is not entitled to travel-pay.

3. By direction of the Secretary of War so much of Special Orders, No. 169, April 12, 1865, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, as honorably discharged Lieutenant Colonel C. B. Grant, 20th Michigan Volunteers, to date March 11, 1865, is amended so as to discharge him as of the date of said order, April 12, 1865.

4. By direction of the Secretary of War Recruit James Glenn, Mounted Service U. S. Army, now at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, having enlisted under false pretences, will be discharged the service of the United States on receipt of this order by the commanding officer of his station. Under paragraph 2464 of the Regulations he is entitled to no pay or allowances, and final statements shall not be furnished him.

5. By direction of the Secretary of War the commanding general Department of the Missouri will grant a furlough for six months, after his re-enlistment, with permission to go beyond sea, to Commissary Sergeant Herman Mendel, U. S. Army, now serving in that department.

6. With the approval of the Secretary of War the leave of absence on surgeon's certificate of disability granted 2d Lieutenant Alonzo L. O'Brien, 2d Cavalry, in Special Orders, No. 192, November 17, 1882, Department of Dakota, is extended five months on surgeon's certificate of disability.

7. By direction of the Secretary of War leave of absence from January 8, 1883, or from such date thereafter as he may be relieved from his present duties, until February 21, 1883, with permission to go beyond sea, is granted Colonel George Thom, Corps of Engineers.

8. By direction of the Secretary of War the following changes in the stations and duties of officers of the Corps of Engineers are ordered:

Colonel Charles E. Blunt will take station at Portland, Maine, and relieve Colonel George Thom of his duties in connection with the works of river and harbor improvement in the States of Maine and New Hampshire.

Captain Charles W. Raymond will be relieved from duty with the Engineer Battalion, Willet's Point, New York, by the commanding officer of the battalion on receipt of this order, and will take station at Boston, Massachusetts, and relieve Colonel George Thom of the charge of river and harbor works now under his direction in the State of Massachusetts. Captain Raymond will also relieve Colonel Charles E. Blunt of the charge of the works of fortification now under his direction in the State of Massachusetts, and will report by letter to the Secretary of the Treasury for duty as engineer of the first and second light-house districts, relieving Colonel Blunt.

The journeys, as directed, are necessary for the public service.

9. The superintendent general recruiting service will cause fifty recruits to be prepared and forwarded under proper charge to Fort Concho, Texas, via Abilene, on the Texas and Pacific Railroad, for assignment to the 16th Infantry.

By command of General Sherman:

R. C. DRUM,
Adjutant General.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington City, October 31, 1883.

By direction of the President of the United States a court of inquiry is hereby appointed to investigate the organization and fitting out of the Greely relief expedition party transported by the steamer "Proteus," having particular reference to the orders and instructions issued for the guidance and government thereof, and the arrangements made for assistance from the United States steamer "Yantic."

The court will make a full and thorough investigation of all matters relating to the general conduct of the expedition, including, particularly, the failure of the "Proteus" to keep in company with the "Yantic" up to Littleton Island or its neighborhood, and the failure to establish a well provided relief-station at or near Littleton Island, and will take into consideration in their investigation such records and correspondence pertaining to the original Greely expedition as they may deem necessary, and will report the facts developed by their investigation and their opinion as to whether the conduct of any officer of the Army in the premises calls for further proceedings before a general court-martial, and the reasons for the conclusions which they may reach.

Detail for the court.

Brigadier General S. V. Benét, Chief of Ordnance.

Colonel O. M. Poe, aide-de-camp.

Colonel R. B. Ayres, 2d Artillery.

Major Henry Goodfellow, judge advocate, U. S. Army, will act as recorder of the court.

The court will meet in the city of Washington on the eighth day of November, 1883.

ROBERT T. LINCOLN,
